Hey, I could move to New York and practice law!

Always nice to see a relative.

Boy, it's quiet out there. It's kind of creepy.

And a very handsome relative, too.

Maybe everyone is curled up under the snow and behaving as trollcatz suggested? Unless they're all just trapped in the brand-new permafrost...

I vote for NY!

...also so pretty; but did the make up artist really need to use that much kohl? :)

Or just makes you look kinda fabulous why out there? (I suppose there's no real need to chose one or the other)

Family policy requires no one mention how well things are going or how quiet is is lest they attract the Whimsical Fairy, who gives experiences that are only funny later, if at all.

We sometimes give Grams a pass. Mainly because we can't stop her. But you should see me restraining the urge to make warding gestures when she chirps 'This is all so NICE! Isn't it peaceful?'.

On the other hand, I believe in acknowledging the pleasant bits.

They're rare enough. I like to encourage them.
